

OBITUARIES

George W. Martin

George W. Martin, 80, of 222 Main st., Evanston, who was a broker many years on the Chicago Mercantile exchange, of which he was a charter member, died yesterday in Evanston hospital. Mr. Martin, an Evanston resident 42 years, was a member of the Evanston Golf club and a former member of the Chicago Athletic association. Surviving are his widow, Mary; a son, George W. Jr., and two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Bures and Mrs. Lois Henderson. Services will be held at 1 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 1567 Maple av., Evanston.

Gabriel Pascal

New York, July 6 (AP)—Gabriel Pascal, 60, British film producer, died today. Pascal was broke when in 1936 he persuaded George Bernard Shaw, the Irish playwright, to let him make "Pygmalion." Shaw had turned down numerous offers from other producers. Shaw entrusted Pascal to film others of his plays, including "Maj. Barbara," "Caesar and Cleopatra," and "Androcles and the Lion."

Marvin W. Berkson

Marvin W. Berkson, 41, of the Seneca hotel, 200 E. Chestnut st., an attorney, died yesterday in Billings hospital. A graduate of the University of Chicago, Mr. Berkson was a member of the army provost marshal's security intelligence corps during World War II. Surviving are his father, Edward, also an attorney, with whom he shared offices at 120 S. La Salle st., and a brother, Richard. Services will be held at 2 p. m. Friday in the chapel at 5206 Broadway.

August Wunder

Passaic, N. J., July 6 [Special]—Requiem mass for August Wunder, 70, whose son George draws the Chicago Tribune-New York News syndicate comic strip, Terry, will be offered Thursday morning at St. Nickolas church, here. Wunder, a retired florist, died yesterday.

Emma L. Marriott

The funeral of Miss Emma Louise Marriott, 73, of 2907 Hartzell st., Evanston, who retired in 1946 as assistant corset buyer for Marshall Field & Co., will be held at 1 p. m. today in the chapel at 1567 Maple av., Evanston. She died Friday in San Antonio, Tex. A niece and nephew survive.

William J. Woeger

St. Louis, July 6 (AP)—William J. Woeger, 46, head of the photography department of Monsanto Chemical company, died of a heart attack at his home here yesterday. He was chief photographer on an expedition to Africa a year ago to make wildlife movies.

Walter S. Hahn

Walter S. Hahn, 44, of 7360 N. Damen av., president of Bal Hosiery company, 108 N. Franklin st., died yesterday in Weiss Memorial hospital. He leaves his father, Barney. Services will be held at 11 a. m. today in the chapel at 1300 Devon av.

Fred H. Hoff

Fred H. Hoff, 70, of 5342 Warner av., retired vice president and cashier of the West Irving State bank, died yesterday in his home. Survivors include his widow, Catherine. Services will be held at 10 a. m. Friday in Our Lady of Victory church.

Pedro Costa Rego

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, July 6 [Special]—Pedro Costa Rego, 65, former senator and editor of Correio da Manhã, died today after a long illness. He was governor of his native state of Alagoas from 1924 to 1928.

Charles R. Noyes

Princeton, N. J., July 6 (AP)—Charles Reinold Noyes, 70, former president of the National Bureau of Economic Research and the author of several books on economics, died yesterday of a heart attack.

John G. Severson

Mass for John Gordon Severson, 44, will be said tomorrow in Blessed Trinity church, Miami Springs, Fla. He had moved there from Chicago 10 years ago. Mr. Severson, a commercial flyer, died Monday in Miami Springs. He enlisted in the army air corps in Chicago in 1944 and served in the Pacific theater. Surviving are his widow, Bernadette; a son, Thomas; a daughter, Jerry Ann; his mother, Anna, and a sister.

Francis U. Carlborg

Francis U. Carlborg, 56, who retired Thursday as vice president of the State Bank and Trust company of Evanston, died yesterday in his home at 2116 McDaniel av., Evanston. He had worked for the bank 37 years. Survivors are his widow, Sonja M.; a son, Frank W., and two daughters, Elizabeth and Catherine. Services will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in Immanuel Lutheran church, Sherman and Lake sts., Evanston.

Mrs. Catherine A. Grant

Mass for Mrs. Catherine A. Grant, 88, of 2073 Farwell av., formerly of 401 Melrose st., widow of William J., will be said at 10 a. m. tomorrow in Our Lady of Mount Carmel church. She died Sunday. Surviving are four daughters, Lillian, Mrs. James Connolly, Mrs. Harold De Ford, and Mrs. Daniel Buckley; two sons, W. Raymond and J. Victor, and a sister.

Frank Y. Hallett

Services for Frank Y. Hallett, 64, of 1742 Granville av., midwest representative for 30 years for the Louis De Jonge Paper company, and more recently for the Exeter Paper company, will be held at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 6216 N. Clark st. He died Monday in Mercy hospital. He leaves his widow, Helen D., and a son, Capt. Jack D., of the United States army.

Sister Mary Berilla

The funeral of Sister Mary Berilla, principal of St. Mary's High school, 1031 S. Hoyne av., from 1930 to 1936, will be held today at Clarke college, Dubuque, Ia., where she had been receptionist and buyer since leaving Chicago in 1936. She died there Sunday. Sister Mary Berilla entered the congregation of the Sisters of Charity in 1891. Four sisters survive.

Walter L. Tenell

Sturgeon Bay, Wis., July 6 (AP)—Walter L. Tenell, 50, for many years a leader in the cherry industry, died in a hospital here yesterday. He was manager of the Martin orchards, one of the world's largest, for more than 20 years before he retired two years ago. He was a director of the National Red Cherry institute.

Lt. Gen. Trifom I. Shevaldin

MOSCOW, July 6 (AP)—The Russian army newspaper Red Star today announced the death of Trifom Ivanovich Shevaldin, 66, retired lieutenant general. A veteran of the revolution and World War II, Shevaldin held two Orders of Lenin, three Red banners, and other decorations.

Walter H. Guertler

Services for Walter Henry Guertler, 61, of 4137 N. Paulina st., organizer of the Monitor-Guertler Machine shop, formerly at 118-124 S. Clinton st., will be held at 3 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 3834 Irving Park rd. He died Monday. Three sisters survive.