

AUSTIN WOMAN'S CLUB WILL HEAR AMELIA EARHART

Occasion Annual Men's Night Tomorrow.

Members of the Austin Woman's club and their husbands will journey from Hawaii to California and from Mexico to New Jersey with Amelia Earhart Putnam, who will appear tomorrow evening in Austin Town hall.

The occasion is the men's night held annually by the club to give the masculine contingent a glimpse into the various social and civic duties managed so capably by the women through the year. Mrs. Putnam will speak on "Aviation Adventures," relating her flying experiences, including recent flights from Hawaii to California and her nonstop trip from Mexico to New Jersey.

The club's garden circle will meet for a forum discussion at 10:30 o'clock Friday morning in the home of Mrs. William A. Dean Jr., 316 North Mayfield avenue. Mrs. F. W. Dauncey, chairman, will conduct the session. Assisting Mrs. Dean with hostess duties will be Mrs. Henry Welch, Mrs. Joseph J. Nadherny, and Mrs. F. W. Wilmot.

Millard Avenue Club.

Mrs. Franklin R. Colby, chairman of the music department of the Millard Avenue Woman's club, has arranged a program of songs and dances to be presented by the Parmenter ensemble at 1:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in the Shedd park fieldhouse. Members of the group, who will be dressed in costumes of the 18th century, are Miss Marguerite Jacobson, soprano; Miss Avesta Parish, contralto; Robert Long, tenor; Leonard Huber, baritone, and Miss Marion Ranstead, accompanist.

A study of the book, "Green Light" by Lloyd C. Douglas, will be made by the literature study class of the club next month. Mrs. William Zaloudek, literature chairman, will conduct the project.

Tuesday Club.

"American Home Day" will be observed by the Tuesday club with a luncheon and program to be held in the home of Mrs. John C. Wilmot, 5745 Race avenue, Tuesday afternoon. Miss Elsa Haeger will read a paper on "The Romance of Pottery."
